

Celebrating 250 years

250 years ago today, on 18 August 1767, one of the forerunners to the Marine & Energy business in Gard was established by Royal decree in Copenhagen, Den Almindelige Brandforsikrings-Indretning for Bygninger.

Published 18 August 2017

The information provided in this article is intended for general information only. While every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information at the time of publication, no warranty or representation is made regarding its completeness or timeliness. The content in this article does not constitute professional advice, and any reliance on such information is strictly at your own risk. Gard AS, including its affiliated companies, agents and employees, shall not be held liable for any loss, expense, or damage of any kind whatsoever arising from reliance on the information provided, irrespective of whether it is sourced from Gard AS, its shareholders, correspondents, or other contributors.

It became head quartered in Oslo in 1814 and took the name of Norges Brannkasse in 1912. It merged with Norske Folk in 1984 to become UNI, which merged with Storebrand in 1991.

In 2000, the Marine & Energy business of If, itself a result of a merger between Storebrand and Skandia (Vesta) became part of Gard.

The information provided in this article is intended for general information only. While every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information at the time of publication, no warranty or representation is made regarding its completeness or timeliness. The content in this article does not constitute professional advice, and any reliance on such information is strictly at your own risk. Gard AS, including its affiliated companies, agents and employees, shall not be held liable for any loss, expense, or damage of any kind whatsoever arising from reliance on the information provided, irrespective of whether it is sourced from Gard AS, its shareholders, correspondents, or other contributors.