

Singapore – temporary restrictions on vessels transiting or anchoring in the port, 10-13 June 2018

The Singapore Maritime and Port Authority (MPA) has imposed restrictions on all vessels calling or transiting Singapore port to avoid certain areas of the port during the period 10-13 June 2018.

Published 11 June 2018

The information provided in this article is intended for general information only. While every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information at the time of publication, no warranty or representation is made regarding its completeness or timeliness. The content in this article does not constitute professional advice, and any reliance on such information is strictly at your own risk. Gard AS, including its affiliated companies, agents and employees, shall not be held liable for any loss, expense, or damage of any kind whatsoever arising from reliance on the information provided, irrespective of whether it is sourced from Gard AS, its shareholders, correspondents, or other contributors.

The restrictions are in line with the security measures adopted by the port during the high level meeting taking place in Singapore between US President Donald Trump and North Korean leader, Kim Jong-un.

The Singapore MPA's notice no 060 of 2018 prohibits all vessels from transiting, anchoring or remaining in certain areas including Selat Sengkir, Keppel Harbour, Cruise Bay, Off Sentosa Coast. Further details on duration of the exclusions can be found in the MPA notice and mariners are advised to include the prohibitory notice during voyage planning.

In addition to the prohibited areas, the notice also restricts vessels movements at the Sisters Fairway and part of Western Anchorage and Buran Channel during the period 12 to 13 June. Details can be found in the charts provided as an Appendix to the above notice. The restrictions exempt approved regional ferries to and from the Harbour Front regional Ferry terminal.

It is expected that the prohibited and restricted area will be under close surveillance. For queries, Members and their agents can contact the Marine Safety Control Centre at +65 6325 2488/9 or Mr Bernard Chin at +65 6773 7413.