Gard celebrates 110th anniversary

The 9th October is Gard's 110th anniversary – a fascinating journey that has taken it from being the provider of a single product for a local set of clients to a global organisation catering to the whole spectrum of marine insurances.

However much the organisation may have changed, its fundamental purpose has remained constant. Gard has developed and prospered by staying close to its Members and clients, anticipating and responding to their changing needs. This philosophy of security and care is as compelling a proposition today as it has always been – and will remain our foundation in the years to come.
