"It was a very good renewal, with sustainable growth that is fairly priced," said Gard's CEO, Rolf Thore Roppestad. "Last year was an exceptional renewal for us and this year we have continued the trend, delivering strong results in a competitive market. We saw more business coming in from Greece, Asia, and other regions, as well as continued consolidation with owners shifting their fleets to benefit from the strength and stability that we offer. We are happy to see that the consistency we deliver is valued both by existing and new Members."
