

Company News

Gard announces the winners of the Claes Isacson Scholarship 2015

Gard is pleased to announce that the winners of the Claes Isacson Scholarship 2015 for maritime education are ...

Published 25 May 2015

The information provided in this article is intended for general information only. While every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information at the time of publication, no warranty or representation is made regarding its completeness or timeliness. The content in this article does not constitute professional advice, and any reliance on such information is strictly at your own risk. Gard AS, including its affiliated companies, agents and employees, shall not be held liable for any loss, expense, or damage of any kind whatsoever arising from reliance on the information provided, irrespective of whether it is sourced from Gard AS, its shareholders, correspondents, or other contributors.

Vincent Yeung from Hong Kong and Chentao Xie from Singapore

Vincent Yeung, 24, from Hong Kong is currently studying at the City University of Hong Kong. He has previously been a summer intern at Holman Fenwick Willan and participated in the intensive three week maritime law programme at Dalian Maritime University in China.

Chentao Xie, 22, from Singapore is currently completing his bachelor of science at the Nanyang University, Singapore and has participated in an exchange programme with Handelshøyskolen BI, Oslo, Norway.

Gard established the Claes Isacson Scholarship for maritime education in 2013. The annual scholarship has been set up to help young people finance an education at university level, with a view to finding work within the shipping and marine insurance sectors. Each applicant must present a plan for the completion of his/her studies and how they intend to make use of the scholarship.

The students will receive their scholarships at separate events in Hong Kong and Singapore respectively.

The information provided in this article is intended for general information only. While every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information at the time of publication, no warranty or representation is made regarding its completeness or timeliness. The content in this article does not constitute professional advice, and any reliance on such information is strictly at your own risk. Gard AS, including its affiliated companies, agents and employees, shall not be held liable for any loss, expense, or damage of any kind whatsoever arising from reliance on the information provided, irrespective of whether it is sourced from Gard AS, its shareholders, correspondents, or other contributors.