MOTÖRHEAD LOST TAPES VOL:4

Once upon a time, old-school sound systems contained cassette decks for the express purpose of recording shows. Motörhead were certainly no exception, recording show after show and we are delighted to announce that this unique collection of live gems will now be heard by the world, via carefully digitized transfers, in this series titled The Lost Tapes. Volume four has been hand-picked by the increasingly deaf, but well-meaning Motörhead team, and sees the then quartet play a monstrous live set from the 'No Remorse' album tour, recorded at Sporthalle, Heilbronn, Germany on 29th December 1984.
